Report on Historical Place Visit at Mayapur

Date: 05.08.2023 to 07.08.2023

Place: Mayapur (Nabadwip Dham)

Educational excursions not only enhance the knowledge of the students but also broaden their outlook towards the outside world. Students of 2nd semester, B.Ed. of Y.S.PalparaMahavidyalaya went for excursion as per practicum syllabus inMayapur which is situated in an area somewhere in the middle of the rivers Hoogly and Jalangi and is one of the main of the nine islands of the Chaitanya Mahaprabhu'sdhamNabadwip. A group of students were escorted by 4 teachers and the principal sir of the college.

The first day of the weekend trip started fromMecheda station. The students and teachers reached the Howrah station by train. Then We reached the Nabadwip Dham station at 1.00 P.M. After that we moved towards ourlodging place named Gita Bhavan. Then we freshened up and took our lunch there. Afterwards we visited the ISKCON's goshala at Mayapur which is a happy home for more than 200 cows, bulls and calves. They grow up in a natural and peaceful atmosphere and are maintained nicely by a dedicated team of devotees. Several mile products like ghee, butter, yogurt, cow dung is produced there for selling in the market. There are about thirty cows being milked presently, which yields 210 liters of milk daily. Milk is sold to the residents of Mayapur, and also used in the Deity and devotee kitchens. After that student visited Sri Mayapur Chandrodaya Mandir or the Temple of the Vedic Planetarium, dedicated to the Hindu deities Radha Madhava. After that student visited puspa samadhi of shreePrabhupada.Presently in Mayapur it is the tallest marble dome which touches the skyline from where you can see the whole Mayapur.The Samadhi Mandir is covered by the beautiful garden and a small lake is also there. Inside the Samadhi a larger-than-life size brass murti of Srila Prabhupada has been installed and worshipped here. Afterwards We returned to our hotel and took our dinner.

Second Day began with a visit to rimurari gupta's house. Sri Murari Gupta was a very intimate associate whose pastimes with Lord Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu were steeped in the loving bond of their eternal relationship. Afterwards students visited Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu's birthplace, known as the Yogapitha, is on the banks of the holy Ganga and was discovered in 1887 by the 19th Century Vaisnava saint, Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakura. The Thakura built a beautiful temple here with the Deities of Mahaprabhu and His consorts Visnupriya and Laksmipriya, and Radha-Madhava. It was followed by praying to the 60 ft statue of Gour Nitai. lastly, they visited the Sonar Gouranga temple which is one of the most famous temples in Nawadwip. It is situated besides Sribas Angan and lies opposite to Sri Samajbari Asram. The temple is famous for the Golden Shrine of great social reformer and saint, Chaitanya Mahaprabhu. His footwear has been kept here, in a glass case. It is said that Pratap Chandra Goswami, a follower of Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, constructed this temple.

Next day students left Nabadwipdham by train at 10.30 a.m. and from Mecheda station students started journey for their home.
