Workshop on Achieving Freedom through Yoga and Meditation and Motivation to Nationalism

NSS (National Service Scheme) units of Yogoda Satsanga Palpara Mahavidyalaya organized a programme and a rally on the eve of 76th Independence Day in the college campus. The faculty members, non-teaching staffs, the Programme Officers of the four units of NSS, NSS Volunteers and other students of our college participated in the programme. Prof. (Dr.) Pradipta Kumar Mishra, Principal of our college hoisted the National Flag and flora tribute was offered by all the present to the great patriotic leaders and martyrs who sacrificed themselves for the motherland. Dr. Mishra delivered a very attractive and motivational speech to encourage the students about the importance of "Independence" in real sense. Almost all volunteers were present in the programme. NSS volunteers and other students of the college also performed a cultural programme and yoga meditation on the same day. Dr. Srimati Pandit, Head, Department of Bengali also encouraged the students with her speech. Mr Bikash Ghorai Head clerk of the college also share his views regarding the importance of the Independence Day. Ms. Soma Gayen a student of B.ED also share her view about the role, students can play for the overall development of the nation. Photos of the rally and programmes are attached herewith for perusal.
