

B. A. General in Political Science

Program Specific Outcome (PSO)

At the end of the entire UG course in Political Science a successfully passed out student will be liable to the following opportunities

- Eligible for further pursuing higher study in Political Science, Public Administration and International Relation
- Allied field related to power politics i.e., Journalism and Public Relation can also pursue
- Can go for High Class government Service like, IAS, IFS, IPS and other State level Public services through competitive examination
- Career in Media house is also open for the student pursue political science.

Department of Political Science Course specific outcome (General)
Semester	Paper/Course	Name of the Paper/Course	Course Outcome
Semester-1	DSC-1A	Introduction to Political Theory	Study about the concepts of democracy, liberty, Equality, Justice, Rights, Gender, Citizenship, Civil Society and State.
Semester-2	DSC-1B	Indian Government and Politics	To understand about the basis institution of Indian Government, Constitution of India and the party system in India.
Semester-3	DSC-1C	Comparative Government and Politics	To Know the nature, Scope of historical context of modern government i.e., Capitalism, Socialism and Colonialism.
	SEC-1	Legislative Support	To understand the powers and functions of people's representative at different tiers of governance and the role of different committees in the formation of laws.
Semester-4	DSC-1D	Introduction to International Relation	To know the fundamental concepts of International Relation. i.e., realism, liberalism and structural approach of world system.
	SEC-2	Public Opinion and Survey Research	Know about the role of public opinion in a democratic political system.
Semester-5	DSE-1A	Theme in Comparative Political Theory	Study of the distinctive feature of Indian and western political thought. i.e., Aristotle, Rousseau, J.S. Mill, Marx, Kautilya, and Nehru.
	GE-1	Reading Gandhi	Studying a close reading of Hind Swaraj, Commentaries, and Communal Unity and Untouchably from Gandhian perspective.
	SEC-3	Democratic Awareness with legal	To study the fundamental of the laws application in India. And

Semester-6		literary	learn about the alternative dispute mechanism about the legal system in India.
	DSE-1B	Understanding Globalization	Enables students to develop an understanding of the economic, political, technological and cultural dimension of globalization.
	GE-2	UN and Global Conflict	To know about principles, objectives, structure and functions of United Nation.
	SEC1V	Conflict and Peace Building	To understand conflict and various techniques of enforcing peace building mechanism.