

Programme Outcomes of General Education

The course will help in developing in-depth understanding of-

1. The meaning of education, its aims, factors, agencies and various perspectives including various agencies of education and child-centricism and play-way in education.
2. The theoretical implications of the educational psychology on various stages of development. Learners also learn different aspects of human development, cognitive approach of development etc.
3. The concept about Sociological Foundation of Education including nature, and scope of Sociology of education, Social Groups and Socialization process, Social change and Social interaction in Education and social Communication.
4. Theoretical and practical knowledge on Inclusive Education, concept of Inclusion and exclusion, exclusion and their causes and how to bring about inclusion in different spheres of activity.
5. The Historical aspect of foundation in Education
6. The difference among different foundations of Education.