

Programme Outcomes (M.Ed.)

On successful completion of the two year M.Ed. programme, the prospective Teacher Educator will get the opportunity to excel in the field of education with multiple skills. In terms of programme specific context of Master of Education the outcomes are as follows:

1. The prospective Teacher Educator will gain knowledge to explore the educational thoughts of Indian and western thinkers and practice their educational implications while transacting the school curriculum.
2. They will Comprehend the nature of learners by applying the educational principles of philosophical, psychological and sociological foundations in classroom situation.
3. The prospective Teacher Educator will develop generic skills such as decision making, critical reasoning, problem solving, creativity and innovation in addressing the needs of diverse learners by adopting suitable instructional strategies.
4. Build confidence in conducting research and experimentation in the issues and challenges existing in present system of education.
5. Integrate ICT enabled education in developing the educational technology tools and apply them in their curriculum transaction.
6. Understand the role and responsibilities of central agencies like NCTE, NCERT, UGC, and NIEPA in implementing the functions of higher education system in India.
7. Analyze and familiarize the principles underlying in the pre service and In-service teacher education programmes at secondary and higher secondary level.
8. Practice the processes involved in the development and evaluation of curriculum and materials.
9. Enable the trainees to develop competencies in educational planning, supervision and administration.
10. Qualify various competitive exams like NET, SET, SLET etc.
11. The program will be helpful in preparing quality teacher educators for making healthy, inclusive society.